the 1990s, the number of people who have been diagnosed with the disease has increased significantly. In fact, the number of people who have been diagnosed with the disease has increased by more than 100 percent since 1990. This is a significant increase, and it is a sign that the disease is becoming more common. The reason for this increase is not clear, but it may be related to the fact that the disease is becoming more common in people who are older. The disease is also becoming more common in people who are taking certain medications. The disease is also becoming more common in people who are taking certain medications.
